

FEDERAL SECURITY SERVICE — CONFIDENTIAL NOTICE

SUBJECT: SECURITY SURVEILLANCE ADVISORY

TO: MR. NNANYELU BLESSING EGEH

Your activities have been monitored in relation to recent gatherings, protests, and online mobilization targeting state security operations and government institutions.

This is a formal advisory to inform you that continued involvement in disruptive assemblies such as the so-called “End SARS memorial” and other anti-government campaigns is viewed as a threat to national peace and order.

You are being watched.

We strongly advise that you cease all public or private mobilization, distribution of inflammatory materials, and unauthorized gatherings.

Failure to comply may attract serious consequences as outlined under Section 45 of the Nigerian Constitution and applicable national security regulations.

“Silence ensures safety. Rebellion invites consequences.”

— National Peace Surveillance Unit